Sunday Results.

Paducah 9, Mattoon 1.

By a sensational bare-handed stab of Eddie Taylor's long drive to deep left-center, Central Fielder Diehl robbed Paducah of Sunday's game, one of the neatest and best played games ever seen on the Paducah diamond. This in the fourth inning, robbed Paducah of the score, which would have resulted, had Taylor's drive counted. The game continued for ten innings when an error on the part of "Red" Perry, caused by interference on the part of a base runner, let in the winning run.

Time after time did the Indians stick men on the bases, and once when Haas was on first and Wetzel sacrificed him to second, the big baseman ran clear to third sack, which had been left unprotected by Armstrong, who fielded Wetzel's bunt. With one man out and one on third it looked sure for a successful demonstration of the "squeeze" play. Lloyd signaled for a squeeze-but Dowell was left handed and this fact was overlooked. He wound up and Haas started for home; Dowell shot the ball to Armstrong and caught Haas. After this the third out proved easy.

In the tenth inning Mattoon opened a bombardment and knocked Brahic freely. The little pitcher allowed three hits this inning and with three men on the bases fielded a grounder to Perry. Perry missed it, due partly to the fact that Schissell jumped in front of the ball and confused the fielder. This took the ginger out of the fans and the game went a goose egg problem for the Indians.

Perry Green in the Vincennes Capital, gives the Indians credit for having the best team work, but says it appears the team is weak with the stick.

Haas made a bad throw yesterday but it did not count for much.

Diehl, Mattoon's center fielder, is giving Paducah a duplication of what Eddie Taylor, the Indian's middle gardener, did for the Mattoon fans.

The Indians had an off day with the stick yesterday.

Bert Haas keeps hitting 'em all over the field.

Sold by Alvey & List.

A little girl was out walking with her aunt one day. The aunt bowed to a man they were passing. "Who is he, Aunt Jennie?" asked the little girl. Mrs. Littlefield told her that he was Mr. Melrose, the village undertaker. "Oh, yes," replied the child quickly. "I remember him. He undertook my grandmother."—Harper's Bazaar.
